

Welcome to Historic Kimmswick

This historic Mississippi river town has been selected as one of the Top 100 Small Town Getaway by Midwest Living Magazine. We invite you to “getaway” for an afternoon or a weekend and enjoy the hospitality of this quaint village, first established in 1859.

Enjoy the hospitality of our restaurants, the wide variety of goods in our many gift shops and galleries, or relax in a comfortable Bed and Breakfast.

Forty four buildings within the seven block commercial district have been recently added to the National Registry of Historic Places.

Many of Kimmswick’s businesses and residents continue to occupy the original buildings. You will be surrounded by a vibrant town revitalized by its restoration efforts.
